MS HUNTER'S CLASS

ROOM 16

We did cooking on Friday. We made greek salad and flat bread. The best part about it was making the dressing and eating the scraps of the salad.

- Tyrell Fielding

We did cooking on Friday and we had to be in groups of five and one of the groups made Greek Salad and one of the groups made another salad and the people that were done on each team had to make flat bread. After, we tasted some of what we made and the greek salad that we made was really nice and it had some things that I didn't like very much but I still tasted what I had to. The class had a very good time.

- Malisha Wilson-Brady

If your child talks to you about bullying:

1. Listen calmly and get the full story.
2. Reassure your child that they are not to blame.
3. Ask your child what they want to do about it and how you can help.
4. Visit www.bullyingnoway.gov.au to find some strategies.
5. Contact the school.
6. Check in regularly with your child.

BULLYING. NO WAY!

Working together to support school-aged students on the autism spectrum

Free Two Day Workshop for Parents and Carers

Port Augusta
14 & 15 March 2018

Positive Partnerships is coming to a location near you!

Join us for 2 days of learning with other parents and carers of school aged children on the autism spectrum, designed to help you foster productive school, family and community relationships to provide the best kind of support for your child. Our workshops are for parents, carers and grandparents wanting to understand more about autism and learn practical strategies using evidence based resources to help maximise their young person's learning.

What will you gain by attending this workshop?

- An increased understanding of the impact of autism
- Further knowledge about how to develop effective partnerships with your school
- Information to help you access further support both inside and outside of school
- An opportunity to be part of a support network where you can share strategies and experiences with other parents/carers
- An understanding of a planning tool that can be used to share key information related to your child
