Ms Ros's Class

Room 6 Excursion to Quorn Dotti Venables

During the last week of Term 3, our class went to Quorn in a big, yellow bus for a treat. It takes 40 kms to get to Quorn from Port Augusta.

When we arrived at Quorn, we all got off the bus and Ms Ros let us play on the playground. I liked the playground because it had exciting equipment.

After we had played at the playground, we started exploring Quorn. There were a lot of old buildings and stores in Quorn. There were also lots of interesting old places like the Courthouse, the Railway Station and the Powell Gardens.

For recess, we had urti (quondong) jam and cream scones. After we had recess, we were allowed to play on the playground one last time before we got on the bus to go to the gardens.

In the gardens, we sat on "Fay's Chair." She loved to sit and look at the gardens from that chair. Then we walked down the stone stairs to get to the creek. Mr Nick and I saw a little blue and black dragonfly hovering over the water. Then we walked up the hill and back through the gates to the bus.

It took another 40 kms back to school and when we got back we were exhausted, but it was a BRILLIANT day!

Did you know Quorn was named after a place in England called Quorndon?

Did you know there is a Heritage walk around the town ?

Did you know Quorn is a town about 40 km from Port Augusta?
